

POTAMITISVEKRIS named Chambers' top Greek law firm for 2020

Athens, April 27, 2020 - POTAMITISVEKRIS was awarded the "Greece Law Firm of the Year 2020" award by Chambers Europe.

Every year, the legal directory "Chambers and Partners", conducts a thorough and independent research process based on feedback from organizations, individuals, as well as the marketplace. More than 200 researchers and editors seek out the best law firms across Europe. The Chambers Europe awards are widely recognized as a mark of top quality of service, innovation and client satisfaction across all practice areas served by a law firm.

POTAMITISVEKRIS wins this prestigious award for a 3rd time in the last 9 years, consolidating its position as one of the top Greek law firms.

POTAMITISVEKRIS Managing Partner Stathis Potamitis said: "Devotion to our clients and collegiality among our team are two core features of our firm's unique culture. We are grateful for this recognition, and remain fully committed to expanding the breadth and depth of our legal services and to assisting our clients to pursue opportunities and manage risk in this challenging environment."
